MAY YOUR HEART BE FILLED WITH LIGHT

The Rite of Reconciliation begins with the sign of the Cross, a reminder that we are baptised into the Family of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and that we are saved by the outpouring of Divine Love in the mystery of the Cross.

(The Return of the Prodigal Son, 1667/1670, Spain—Bartolomé Esteban Murillo)

But I would like to focus on the next prayer the priest prays for the one seeking renewal in God's forgiveness:

"May the grace of the Holy Spirit fill your heart with light. That you may confess your sins with loving trust and come to know that God is merciful."

This prayer sets the true tone for the experience of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It gives lightness when I may at first experience the heaviness of my responsibility and the burdensome weight of my guilt.

Perhaps I am very nervous when I come into the presence of the priest who is to hear my confession. Perhaps I feel that I have to make all the effort to become better or I am frustrated that once again I have failed in something that I have confessed any number of times. But wait, perhaps I need to have another look at how I am thinking. Is this the true way in which I can receive the sacramental gift of God's kindness and forgiveness?

The truth is that already the Holy Spirit has been at work in my heart, leading me to the refreshing waters of repentance, the change of heart that brings new life. The grace of the Holy Spirit does the work of love and renews me.

The prayer therefore makes me aware that the grace of the Holy Spirit fills my heart with the light of hope and encouragement. The same Holy Spirit helps me to confess what I have done "with loving trust" because I speak in the presence of the God who wants to show mercy to me.

Now I am ready to speak ...

Action Plan - Establish a Community Life Leadership Group.

Suggested Strategies to take us forward:

- Gather information and feedback to enhance the quality of sung liturgy and the engagement of the worshippers.
- Review the impact of homilies and liturgies so that they challenge and enrich reflective and mature thinking about faith and commitment.
- Enhance parishioners' liturgical and spiritual life through active participation.
- Review and refine initiatives for the ongoing formation of a range of liturgical ministries.
- Provide initiatives for adults to renew and deepen their understanding of and be enriched by the life and prayer of the Church.
- Draw the community into participating in the Sacramental life and liturgical cycle of the Parish.

The Christ in You Pastoral Plan will set our direction and goals for the growth of our life together as a community of faith and liturgical worship.

There are other possible strategies that can be discussed as the Pastoral Plan is discussed and developed. Please provide your response to the abovementioned strategies or recommend any further strategies to our pastoral plan group by email:

Entrance Antiphon

Cf Psalm 26:8-9

Of you my heart has spoken, Seek his face.
It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
hide not your face from me.

First Reading

Genesis 22:1-2. 9-13. 15-18

A reading from the book of Genesis

The sacrifice of Abraham, our father in faith.

God put Abraham to the test. 'Abraham, Abraham,' he called.' Here I am' he replied. 'Take your son,' God said 'your only child Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him as a burnt offering, on a mountain I will point out to you.' When they arrived at the place God had pointed out to him, Abraham built an altar there, and arranged the wood. Then he bound his son Isaac and put him on the altar on top of the wood. Abraham stretched out his hand and seized the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the Lord called to him from heaven. 'Abraham, Abraham' he said. 'I am here' he replied. 'Do not raise your hand against the boy' the angel said. 'Do not harm him, for now I know you fear God. You have not refused me your son, your only son.' Then looking up, Abraham saw a ram caught by its horns in a bush. Abraham took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son.

The angel of the Lord called Abraham a second time from heaven. 'I swear by my own self – it is the Lord who speaks – because you have done this, because you have not refused me your son, your only son, I will shower blessings on you, I will make your descendants as many as the stars of heaven and the grains of sand on the seashore. Your descendants shall gain possession of the gates of your enemies. All the nations of the earth shall bless themselves by your descendants, as a reward for your obedience.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 115:10. 15-19. R. 114:9

(R.) I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

1. I trusted, even when I said:
'I am sorely afflicted.'
O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful. (R.)
2. Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
you have loosened my bonds.
A thanksgiving sacrifice I make:
I will call on the Lord's name. (R.)
3. My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people,
in the courts of the house of the Lord,
in your midst, O Jerusalem. (R.)

Second Reading

Romans 8:31-34

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

God did not spare his own Son.

With God on our side who can be against us? Since God did not spare his own Son, but gave him up to benefit us all, we may be certain, after such a gift, that he will not refuse anything he can give. Could anyone accuse those that God has chosen? When God acquits, could anyone condemn? Could Christ Jesus? No! He not only died for us – he rose from the dead, and there at God's right hand he stands and pleads for us.

Gospel Acclamation

See Matthew 17:5

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
From the shining cloud, the Father's voice is heard:
this is my beloved Son, hear him.
Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel

Mark 9:2-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

This is my Son, the beloved; listen to him.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone by themselves. There in their presence he was transfigured: his clothes became dazzlingly white, whiter than any earthly bleacher could make them. Elijah appeared to them with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Rabbi,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He did not know what to say; they were so frightened. And a cloud came, covering them in shadow; and there came a voice from the cloud, 'This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him.' Then suddenly, when they looked round, they saw no one with them any more but only Jesus.

As they came down from the mountain he warned them to tell no one what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. They observed the warning faithfully, though among themselves they discussed what 'rising from the dead' could mean.

Communion Antiphon

Matthew 17:5

This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased;
listen to him.

REFLECTION by Fr Michael Tate

Transfigured Bodysouls

St Thomas Aquinas famously said: 'If only my soul is saved, I am not saved.' And yet many Christians do think that our ultimate goal is, by the grace of God, to end up as souls in Heaven.

No, I am a human being, bodysoul. If I am to be saved, then this stardust, this fraction of material creation, this earthling, needs to be immersed into Divine energy and light.

The Transfiguration of Jesus Christ, especially as recounted in the other gospels, shows what happens when human nature is in total communion with God. Every molecule of his body was evidently pulsing with Divine energy and light. The amazing truth is that God ardently desires that each one of us should share in the transfigured life of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

For this to occur, we must play our part, accepting that Jesus of Nazareth is indeed the Beloved Son of God, listen to him, and put into practice what we hear.

We could take a moment to pray that after the "repose of the soul" after death, we may participate as bodysouls in the transfigured humanity of the Risen Lord.
